#1-10

Before I get started I just wanted to say that if I repeat facts I'm sorry but you can't expect me to remember all of the ones I put in this book so if any facts are repeated just leave meh alone pls! :3

• LeopardStar is a 'Dry Paw', which in RiverClan means a cat who refuses to get wet.

• SquirrelFlight requested the 'Leaf' suffix for HollyLeaf's warrior name because she was thinking of LeafPool.

• LeopardStar died from diabetes.

• It was Cody (One of the cats LeafPaw was captured with by Twolegs) told Princess about the Clans leaving the forest.

• HollyLeaf is frightened of thunderstorms because of the confrontation with AshFur.

• TigerClaw was originally going to be called HammerClaw, but one of the Erin's changed it at the last minute because cats wouldn't know what a hammer was. Though Vicky still thought that the name HammerClaw still suited him more than TigerClaw did.

• When Scourge killed TigerStar, slicing his stomach, Scourge struck nine major organs, each causing TigerStar to lose all his lives instead of one.

• LeopardStar joined TigerClan because she was in love with TigerStar.

• GreyStripe And DarkStripe Are half-brothers.

• GreyStripe favoured FeatherTail because she looked more like her mother.

#11-20

• OneStar was angry that he was not accepted by his Clanmates, so in a dream he challenged TallStar to a fight and OneStar won. TallStar said this was proof that OneStar was the right choice for a leader.

• SpottedLeaf was killed so FireHeart wouldn't wouldn't have to choose between her and SandStorm.

• Scourge Hated the dog teeth in his collar but he put up with it to make him look more fearsome.

• Vicky confirmed that, thought they held out for a while, FrostFur, LoudBelly and SpeckleTail all died of starvation a few moons after the Clans left.

• Vicky revealed that CinderPelt has always been in love with FireHeart, but FireHeart never caught on.

• BrokenStar has kittypet blood in him because his grandfather, Hal, was a kittypet.

• In 'Fire And Ice', CinderPaw and BrackenPaw are apprenticed before they are six moons old.

• StarClan was divided in opinions when it came time for the judging on whether AshFur would get into StarClan or not. He just barely made it.

• It's said, once a cat fades away from StarClan, they don't disappear forever, they're just reincarnated again.

• In CrookedStar's promise, ShellHeart was his father, yet in the first series, he was a female, being called 'She' and 'Her'.

#21-30

• BlackStar is a polydactyl cat, which means he has six toes on one of his black paws.

• SandStorm cheated on her final assessment, bringing back prey that was caught by another cat.

• BlueStar was originally going to be named 'MoonStar' but the Erin's thought her name shouldn't be after Clan marks (MoonStone). Yet her mother is MoonFlower.

• BreezePelt wasn't the only kit born in his litter.

• Because Of SnowFur, BlueStar would not cross the ThunderPath over normal standards.

• StormFur's name was a tribute to CrookedStar', since his kit name was 'StormKit', and the suffix 'Fur', in honour of his mentor StoneFur.

• LoudBelly stayed behind in the Clans leaving, claiming they were 'too old', but in the last book in the first series, he was a young warrior.

• TigerStar was given nine lives only because he was willing to be leader and ShadowClan would fall apart without one.

• 'The Three' has SkyClan, ThunderClan, WindClan and Kittypet in them.

• It hadn't been confirmed, but comparing IvyPool and DoveWing to AshFur and BirchFall, some people believe AshFur is the real father, as they have his looks.

#31-40

• TigerStar wasn't given any lives concerning courage or strength in battle. Most of the lives he was given, dealt with having mercy, compassion ect.

• Scourge is FireStar's half brother. They share the same father, Jake, but have didn't mothers.

• A RiverClan queen is fussing over SilverStream at a gathering because she is worried that SilverStream won't be able to make it back to camp since she was pregnant. SilverStream calls the queen GreenFlower, but there is no GreenFlower ever mentioned any where else or in the Allegiances.

• On page 269 of Sunset, SquirrelFlight laughs at BrambleClaw because she says he already appointed FernCloud for a hunting patrol, so she can't go on a hunting patrol. But I'm pages 268-267, BrambleClaw appointed SandStorm for a hunting patrol, and told her to pick two others.

• The 3 cats who sent LeafPool the prophecy for the 'Power Of Three' were LionHeart, BlueStar and YellowFang. Now if you think about it, JayPaw is a lot like YellowFang (he is always grumpy), HollyPaw is a lot like BlueStar (bossy) and LionPaw is a lot like LionHeart (good at everything).

• There are six different cats that had the name WhitePaw: WhiteEye (OneEye), WhiteStorm, WhiteWing, WhiteTail, WhiteFang, And WhiteClaw.

• CloudTail will go to StarClan even though he doesn't believe it is real.

• In the Allegiances Of 'SkyClan's Destiny', WaspWhisker is mistakenly called HunchFoot, because that was originally gonna be his name.

• In the first books of the original arc, 'Queen' seems to mean any she-cat (even female elders are called queens), not just nursing mothers/pregnant she-cats.

• FernCloud has had the most kits with names in the warrior world with a total of 7.
